

ABSTRACT

Muhbibah, Khairul. 08220008. 2012. Staples Hoarding in the point of view of Bawean Society (Muamalah Fiqh Study). Minor Thesis, Major of Business Law of Syari'ah. Syari'ah Faculty. State Islamic University Malang Maulana Malik Ibrahim.

Supervisor: Dr. H. Roibin, MHI

Keyword: Hoarding, Staples

In the present of economic development, many different systems appear in the community because the more advanced age. Type of trade that often occurs now is goods hoarding in which the accumulation of these items can result the rising prices of goods on the market. The practice of goods hoarding is often every year during the dry season and bad weather that can lead to break Bawean-Gresik transportation. On the issue of goods hoarding, the Prophet Muhammad SAW had said in it, which means "Those who hoard goods, then he is guilty. This hadist is very clear about the warning to the person doing the hoarding of goods.

This study aims to determine how the practice of staples hoarding in the Tambak Bawean market as well as Bawean public opinion against the staples hoarding. Staples hoarding like this is often when around the dry season or bad weather. That's how traders use to gain greater profits than before.

To achieve these purposes, researcher used fenomelogy qualitative approach. Data source in the form of primary data and secondary data. Data collection methods using interview, observation and documentation. Test the validity of the data using triangulation and data analysis using descriptive with several stages, namely the identification and classification.

In this study, it was found that: the practice of staples hoarding is often happen that where traders store their goods before selling to the buyer. These items are often hoarded by traders include: gasoline, kerosene, LPG, eggs, flour, sugar and other goods that can be stored in a fairly long period of time. About the time that prohibited the staples hoarding by Bawean divided into three parts: the first opinion, goods hoarding prohibited under any circumstances and all type of goods prohibited to be hoarded. Second opinion, hoarding of goods is prohibited during the dry season and type of illicit goods hoarded is staples, except that is prohibited. While opinion when hoarding is allowed because it is done to meet the needs of society at the time of bad weather.