ABSTRACT

Muhammad Fajrin Dwi Kurniawan, NIM 10210022, 2015. The Role of Sakinah Family Clinics of The Region of Aisyiyah Movement at Malang to create a Sakinah Family. Essay, Departement of Al-Ahwal Al-Syakhshiyyah, Syariah Faculty, Islamic State University Of Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang. The Supervisor is Dr. Hj. Mufidah Ch. M.Ag

Key Words : Family Clinics, Family Protecting, Sakinah Family

Family Clinics is a community institution of engaged in family counseling. Refers to Civil Rights and Political Ordinance in 23 Paragraph 1, which explains that the family is a small unit that is entitled to protection by society and the state of society. The working area organizations such as Family Clinic covers about settling the problems occurred in the family, either the completion of preventive and rehabilitative. Provide to the community, both individuals and families in it has a problem.

The purpose of this study was to determine the family counseling service of Sakinah Family Clinic of the region of Aisyiyah movement in Malang and the results or the achievement of counseling services that have been performed by Sakinah Family Clinic of Aisyiyah Malang.

The method used in this research is qualitative research method are conducted intensive studies and detailed in an organization or institution. The data obtained are mostly primary data collected directly from informants, as well as with adanyasumber dilenkapi secondary data. Methods of data collection in this study is to optimize the process of observation, interviews and documentation.

The role of sakinah family clinic of the Region of Aisyiyah movement at Malang was realized in four different forms, those is preventive, curative, rehabilitative and Promotive. Meanwhile, in terms of outcomes, Sakinah Family Clinic provides more servings on mentoring process.