

ABSTRACT

Dede Sayid Kamil. 2012. Understanding of Actors Transvestites In Sakinah Family Formation (Case Studies in Family Transvestite Blitar) Thesis, Faculty of Sharia, Department of Al-Al-shakhsiyyah ahwal, State Islamic University Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang.
Supervisor; Dr. Hj. Mufidah C.H. M.Ag.

---

Keywords: transvestites and Sakinah Family

Transsexual phenomenon is the case of anomaly (abnormality), in this context is sexual abnormalities. This phenomenon needs a strategic approach to understand kompreherensif and objectively. Sexual abnormalities are divided into two types: first, the case hermaphroditic (double sex). The second, is transeksualitas, or which is known as "bencong", men who resemble women or vice versa. The existence of transvestites are growing problems in terms of religion, law and social life in general. Especially in terms of understanding the family as well as efforts in the formation sakinah sakinah family. Blitar found in many cases of men with the will and ability is limited, so that a transsexual is used as a way to get out of the crush of the economy, in order to meet the needs of his family.

The research was conducted in Blitar. This research problem is how transvestites in Blitar understanding of concepts and forms of family sakinah and what efforts have been made by a transvestite in sakinah family formation. The answer to these questions are expected to know to find out how far the understanding of the transvestites in Blitar about the concept and form families sakinah to know directly the process and the efforts made by the transvestites in Blitar in a family business sakinah. This research uses descriptive research. While the approach used is a qualitative approach. The method used in this study were interviews, observation, and documentation. To analyze the data, researchers used a qualitative descriptive.

Based on the results of field research in Blitar precisely it is known that an understanding of the family sakinah transsexual family is the presence of mutual trust, accept what is, mutual giving of love, happiness, and peace among family members. The efforts made by the family to establish sakinah Changing lifestyles. Included in this effort is to change the pattern of life by switching professions other than a drag queen. Understand and accept the conditions of psychic (mental) as a transsexual. Applying and deepening the Islamic religion. Included in this effort is always directed the family to repent and pray to Allah. In addition, educating children with sufficient religious knowledge.