

ABSTRAC

Keywords: Stone Town Hotel Resort and Tropical Architecture

Resort hotel that is now a majority use the assistance of a technical tool to provide a convenience to visitors, both part of the building and the whole building. This tool is for example are like air conditioning as a stabilizer in space and the Water Treatment as a water heater that is both use the same electricity as a source of energy, so costly in terms pemakian that cause the high price of rent or rental prices of other facilities that use sources electrical energy.

Stone Town as a Town Tourism has great potential in supporting the development of a recreation and resting place of a safe and comfortable. This is because in the Stone Town is an area classified as tropical, plus the city is located in between several mountains such as Mount Panderman, Mountain Lots, and Mount Arjuno a third view of beauty can be enjoyed directly and simultaneously.

Designing the future of this resort hotel is a place of recreation and resort will be adapted to the natural environment in the area of Batu are classified Tropical climates that are tailored to the theme of tropical architecture. Tropical architecture makes Hotel Resort as a place of rest and recreation in harmony with the natural environment in the Batu resort facilities so as to create a safe and comfortable.