The majority of Malang citizens, especially women work as Labor Women (TKW) abroad as domestic maids. Before the prospective maids take off overseas, they are accommodated in advance in shelters or in Vocational Training Center of Working Abroad. During the training, the maids have to wait a long waiting period. Most of them get less favorable treatment. They're snapped with all applicable regulations exist. Among these regulations, they are not permitted to go home or to get out of the shelter without permission of the officers. In case it is very difficult to obtain permission. Meet with the family who visits is difficult as well.

Based on background of the study above, there are several formulations of the problems as follows: The first one, how is the attempt of Vocational Training Center of Working Abroad, 'BLK-LN' Jaya Business Award, Malang in providing protection against the prospective migrant workers on the perspective Maqashid Sharia. Secondly, what constraints faced by Vocational Training Center of Working Abroad, 'BLK-LN' "Enterprises Anugerah Jaya", Malang in providing protection to prospective migrant workers. The type of this research is a qualitative research with descriptive qualitative approach. While data collection techniques are emphasized in interviews and documentation on Vocational Training Center of Working Abroad, 'BLK-LN' "Jaya Business Award", Malang. Data analysis method in this research, used qualitative data analysis.

The results of this study indicated that the Vocational Training Center of Working Abroad, 'BLK-LN' "Jaya Business Award", Malang has provided safeguards for the protection of migrant workers, some are already fit and some are not in accordance to Sharia Maqashid. As for which is in conformity with Shariah maqashid in terms of maintaining religion is nourishing the soul (a kind of works in accordance with the nature and character), maintain reasonable and treasure. And which is not in accordance with (Maqashid al-Shari'ah) in terms of the breeding and maintain Soul (guardian permission). Whereas, in the process, there are obstacles that make the performance of Vocational Training Center of Working Abroad, 'BLK-LN' "Jaya Business Award", Malang is not maximal, including lack of competent teachers.
