Ababstract

Shohifatul Azizah, 2014. THESIS. Title: “Influence of Good Corporate Governance (GCG) by Approaching of Corporate Governance Disclosure Index (CGDI) toward Profitability on Banking of State Owned Enterprise (Badan Usaha Milik Negara) Listed in Indonesia Stock Exchange during 2011-2013”.

Lecture: Yuniarti Hidayah SP. SE., M.Bus., Ak., CA

Keywords: Corporate Governance Disclosure Index (CGDI), Return on Asset (ROA), Return on Equity (ROE) and Annual Report.

Good Corporate Governance (GCG) is a system that directs and controls the company to achieve balance between corporate authority and accountability to stakeholders. The implementation of GCG in company is a concept that used to keep consistency and trust of society on company. Therefore, the existency of GCG has becoming the need that connect the necessity of investor and management of company.

This study aimed to analyze the impact of Good Corporate Governance (GCG) toward profitability ratio. The sample of this study was Banking of State Owned Enterprise (Badan Usaha Milik Negara) listed in Indonesia Stock Exchange during 2011-2013 by using purposive sampling. This study used quantitative descriptive and used simple regression methods. Corporate Governance Disclosure Index (CGDI), Return on Asset (ROA) and Return on Equity (ROE) were analyzed by using SPSS 16 program.

The research result showed that Good Corporate Governance (GCG) has a significant positive impact on Return on Asset (ROA) and Return on Equity (ROE) on Banking of State Owned Enterprise (Badan Usaha Milik Negara) listed in Indonesia Stock Exchange during 2011-2013.