

ABSTRACT

Subrata, Lukman Abdullah, 10220010, Islamic economic legal review of the practice of buying and selling blow catfish. Thesis, Department of Sharia Business Law, Sharia Faculty, The State Islamic University (UIN) Maulana Malik Ibrahim of Malang.

Supervisor: Dr. Noer Yasin M.HI.

---

Keywords; Blow, Transactions.

Indonesia alone in dealing with issues concerning the activities muamalah itself apart in the Civil Code also refers to the Book of the Law of Islamic economics (KHES), where in the book 2 CHAPTER IV has been set regarding the sale and purchase of activities, starting from the elements purchase up to the types of buying and selling which is allowed as a way of buying and selling is done by the blow middlemen with catfish farmers in the Village of Pakisaji Karangduren Malang. The contract is used with the provisions of the Sale and Purchase Strike purchase.

This study aims to describe and analyze on the Sale and Purchase of Farmers Raising Catfish with Middlemen in the Village Marionette Karangduren Pakisaji District of Malang. From perspective of Islamic Economics Law.

This study classified in empirical research that directly falls spaciousness and the approach used in this research is descriptive qualitative approach with the purpose of obtaining the required data through interviews and documentation of the Sale and Purchase of the Farmers Raising catfish with Middlemen and continued data analysis with descriptive qualitative analysis method to obtain a conclusion.

The results of this study indicate that the Sale and Purchase agreement made between the Farmers Growing with Middlemen generally allowed to purchase with Strike in accordance with the rules of Sharia law Economy, It is associated with the habit of the local community and Ease in the Sale and Purchase Transactions.