

ABSTRACT

Solihul Huda Ali Ahmad Sidrotul Muntaha, Student ID Number 10210074, 2014.

Joint Waqf Practices by the Nahdlatul Ulama Branch Board in Sruwen Village, Tengaran Subdistrict, Semarang Regency (the Analysis Study of Article 43 of Law No. 41 of 2004 about Waqf).

Thesis, Al-Ahwal Al-Shakhshiyah Department, Sharia Faculty, the State Islamic University of Maulana Malik Ibrahim of Malang.
Supervisor: Dr. Sudirman, M.A.

Key Words: Joint, Waqf

Waqf is a form of charity which the reward will continue to flow as long as waqf property was utilized. Additionally, waqf has a considerable role to assist the community in encouraging and developing Islamic propaganda (dakwah), both in Indonesia and other countries. Many famous educational institutions at this time come from the management of waqf assets, such as al-Azhar University in Cairo. Likewise boarding schools, mosques and buildings belonging to Islamic organizations (community organizations) and one of them is Nahdlatul Ulama.

The aim of this research is to find out the basic law of corporate waqf practice conducted by Nahdlatul Ulama in Sruwen Village, Tengaran Subdistrict, Semarang Regency and find out the joint waqf practice of Nahdlatul Ulama in Sruwen Village, Tengaran Subdistrict, Semarang Regency in terms of Article 43 of Law No. 41/2004 on Waqf. The object of this research is Nahdlatul Ulama in Sruwen Village, Tengaran Subdistrict, Semarang Regency.

This research is a descriptive that used a qualitative approach and type of research is a field of research (empirical), while the data used is primary data and secondary data obtained from interviews, observation and documentation, which are then processed and presented descriptively.

In the decision on the basis of Islamic law of the joint waqf practice, NU board based on the prophet hadith that describes the reward for those who want to waqf his property will not run out as long as waqf property was used. Anyone can do waqf with an unspecified amount of waqf as well because the arguments do not explain the amount to be incurred and the most important is the intention to do waqf devoted to God, because waqf is a form of worship to Allah solely for his blessings. The Implementation of joint waqf conducted by Nahdlatul Ulama board conforms to the provisions of Law No.41/2004 on waqf, the elements and requirements of Waqf. Nazhir also manage and develop waqf property in accordance with the purpose, function, and intended to be beneficial to the citizens and also for the NU management in accordance with Article 43 concerning the management and development of waqf land productively.